

Program Director for Workplace Services program of Samaritan Counseling Center. This leadership position involves halftime clinical and halftime leadership and marketing work with businesses to develop the EAP, training, and consulting contracts of Workplace Services. The program director will be an energetic, creative, and collaborative professional who serves as part of Samaritan's Leadership Team. Must be an independently licensed clinician in New Mexico (LISW, LPCC, LMFT) with experience in providing clinical services and workplace education and training. Send resume to Dr. Thomas K. Sims, President and CEO, Samaritan Counseling Center: tsims@samaritancc.com or fax: 505-765-1100.